

REQUIREMENTS FOR DEPARTING PASSENGERS AT ENTEBBE INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT (UGANDA)

- Passengers are advised to arrive at the airport 4 hours before a schedule flight's departure time.
- Passengers will be subjected to temperature screening on entry to the airport and departure hall.
- Passengers must wear a face mask appropriately within the airport.
- Passengers should sanitize after touching surfaces or documents.
- Must present an authentic and valid negative COVID -19 Polymerase Chain Reaction (PCR) test certificate issued within 120 hours (120 HOURS BEGINS ON THE DAY THE SAMPLE IS COLLECTED FOR TESTING) before travelling even if the destination country does not require it.
- In case the destination country requires a COVID 19 PCR test certificate below 120 hours, the number of hours indicated by the destination country takes priority.
- Maintaining a social distance of 1.5 meters apart from each other within the passenger terminal.
- Children of three (3) years and below are exempted from having a negative COVID 19 PCR test certificate on condition that their accompanying parents have it.

FOR ARRIVING PASSENGERS AT ENTEBBE INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT (UGANDA)

- Passengers must wear a face mask appropriately within the Airport and will be subjected to temperature screening on the entry to arrival hall.
- Passengers should have an authentic and valid negative COVID -19 PCR TEST CERTIFICATE from an accredited laboratory in the country of origin issued within 120 hrs from the time the sample is collected before arriving at EIA.
- A passenger without the negative COVID 19 PCR TEST CERTIFICATE will be denied entry and the airline shall be fined and obliged to take back the passenger.
- Children of three (3) years and below are exempted from having a negative COVID 19 PCR test certificate on condition that their accompanying parents have it.
- All passengers will be screened for any other signs of infectious diseases by port health team

NOTE

PASSENGERS NEED TO VISIT <https://www.health.go.ug> and <https://caa.go.ug> for more and new updates.